BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

DESIGN STYLE SHEET FOR

THE TIMES OF BENNETT

THE TIMES OF BENNETT

JUST IN, ALREADY NO. 1!

MNX shows legacy movie channels Star Movies, HBO and Sony PIX their true place by dominating the viewership ratings!

MNX Hollywood's Wildchild

School horror: 7-yr-old boy's throat slashed in washroom

Conductor Of School Bus Held, Sexual Assault Bid Suspected

SEMEN TRACES ON DEAD RYAN STUDENT'S CLOTHES

Unruly behaviour on a flight can now ground you for life

3 LEVELS OF MISBEHAVIOUR

Pak army chief talks of political resolution of Kashmir issue

Allot flats or refund money by March '18: SC to Unitech

Noida gets new chief amid homebuyers' stir

Murder accused freed from court

Dera donated 14 bodies to UP med college without death certs

Govindacharya moves SC, says oust Rohingyas

Pak bars Saeed's party from polls

US data breach hit 143m people

Train engine gets detached thrice

PW bid to settle Satyam case

₹10L reward for info about Gauri's killers

This is not my India, I am so sad: Rahman

Digvijaya posts expletive in tweet about PM

Retd scientist dead for 2 wks, body found

13-year-old who went to abort gives birth

ABOUT TURN

Strongest quake to hit Mexico in 85 years kills 34

Oven Story
PIZZAS WITH incredible cheese BASES
Introducing Smokey Chipotle
Choose from our 4 Cheese
Chipotle 4 Pepper El Classico Peri Peri
Introductory Offer
Sweet Deal

Broadsheet

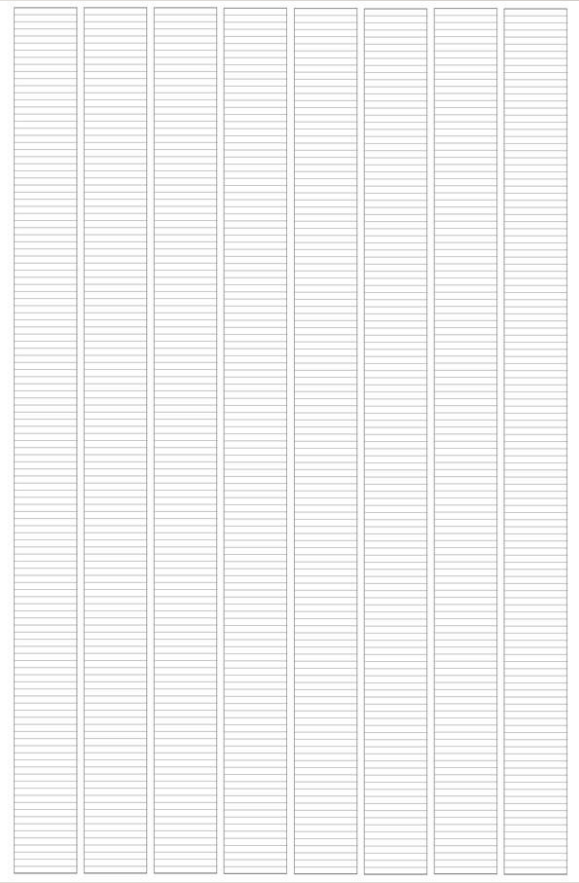
35 cm width and 54.5 cm height
(The Times of India bleed size)

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

The Text Area:
33 cm width and 52.5 cm height
Margins at all sides: 1 cm

No. of Columns: 8
Single Column size: 3.7 cm

Gutter width: .4 cm



BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

Body text:
9 points
Georgia Normal.
Leading:
11points.

DELHI: Habib, Pakistan's largest private bank, neglected to watch for compliance problems and red flags on transactions that potentially could have promoted terrorism, money laundering or other illicit ends, New York banking officials said.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. "DFS will not tolerate inadequate risk and compliance functions that open the door to the financing of terrorist activities that pose a grave threat to the people of this State and the financial system as a whole," DFS Superintendent Maria Vullo said in a news release.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply."DFS will not tolerate inadequate risk and compliance functions that open the door to the financing of terrorist activities that pose a grave threat to the people of this State and the financial system as a whole," DFS Superintendent Maria Vullo said in a news release.

"The bank has repeatedly been given more than sufficient opportunity to correct its glaring deficiencies, yet it has failed to do so." Habib permitted at

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

Headline:
Franklin Gothic Condensed

Single Column:

US Shuts Habib Bank over active Terror concerns

DELHI: Habib, Pakistan's largest private bank, neglected to watch for compliance problems and red flags on transactions that potentially could have promoted terrorism, money laundering or other illicit ends, New York banking officials said.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

14 pts
18 characters per deck

US Shuts Habib Bank overactive Terror concerns

DELHI: Habib, Pakistan's largest private bank, neglected to watch for compliance problems and red flags on transactions that potentially could have promoted terrorism, money laundering or other illicit ends, New York banking officials said.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

18 pts
14 characters per deck

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

Headline:
Franklin Gothic Condensed

Double Column:
30 Pt. U/l

Petrol, diesel cars to face music: PM

DELHI: Habib, Pakistan's largest private bank, neglected to watch for compliance problems and red flags on transactions that potentially could have promoted terrorism, money laundering or other illicit ends, New York banking officials said.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply.

New York regulators said Habib facilitated billions of dollars of transactions with Saudi private bank, Al Rajhi Bank, which reportedly has links to al Qaeda, and failed to do enough to ensure that the funds were not laundered or used for terrorism.

"DFS will not tolerate

8 characters per column.

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

Headline:
Franklin Gothic Condensed

Double Column:
36 Pt. U/l

Settle accidents claim in 1 hour

DELHI: Habib, Pakistan's largest private bank, neglected to watch for compliance problems and red flags on transactions that potentially could have promoted terrorism, money laundering or other illicit ends, New York banking officials said.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply.

New York regulators said Habib facilitated billions of dollars of transactions with Saudi private bank, Al Rajhi Bank, which reportedly has links to al Qaeda, and failed to do enough to ensure that the funds were not laundered or used for terrorism.

"DFS will not tolerate

6 characters per column.

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

Headline:
Franklin Gothic Condensed

Three Column:
30 Pt. U/l

Rajdhani derails near N Delhi stn, 3rd city mishap in 32 days

DELHI: Habib, Pakistan's largest private bank, neglected to watch for compliance problems and red flags on transactions that potentially could have promoted terrorism, money laundering or other illicit ends, New York banking officials said.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its over-

8 characters per column.

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

Headline:
Franklin Gothic Condensed

Three Column:
36 Pt. U/l

Rajdhani derails near Delhi stn, 3rd city mishap

DELHI: Habib, Pakistan's largest private bank, neglected to watch for compliance problems and red flags on transactions that potentially could have promoted terrorism, money laundering or other illicit ends, New York banking officials said.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its over-

6 characters per column.

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

Headline:
Franklin Gothic Condensed

Four Column:
30 Pt. U/l

Rajdhani derails near N Delhi stn, 3rd city mishap in 32 days

By SUJAN DATTA

DELHI: Habib, Pakistan's largest private bank, neglected to watch for compliance problems and red flags on transactions that potentially could have promoted terrorism, money laundering or other illicit ends, New York banking officials said.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

8 characters per column.

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

Headline:
Franklin Gothic Condensed

Four Column:
36 Pt. U/l

Rajdhani derails near Delhi stn, 3rd city mishap

By SUJAN DATTA

DELHI: Habib, Pakistan's largest private bank, neglected to watch for compliance problems and red flags on transactions that potentially could have promoted terrorism, money laundering or other illicit ends, New York banking officials said.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

6 characters per column.

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

Headline:
Franklin Gothic Condensed

Five to Seven Columns:
40 Pt. U/l

Rajdhani derails near N Delhi stn, 3rd city mishap in 32 days

DELHI: Habib, Pakistan's largest private bank, neglected to watch for compliance problems and red flags on transactions that potentially could have promoted terrorism, money laundering or other illicit ends, New York banking officials said.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. "DFS will not tolerate inadequate risk and compliance functions that open the door to the financing of terrorist activities that pose a grave threat to the people of this State and the financial system as

5 characters per column.

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

Banner Headline:
Franklin Gothic Condensed

Rajdhani derails near Delhi

RAJDHANI DERAILS NEAR DELHI

Eight Column:
60 Pt. U/l
4 characters per column

44 Pt. All CAPS
4 characters per column

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

By Line

Franklin Gothic

8 Pt.

ALL CAPS

Rajdhani derails near N Delhi stn, 3rd city mishap in 32 days

By SUJAN DATTA

DELHI: Habib, Pakistan's largest private bank, neglected to watch for compliance problems and red flags on transactions that potentially could have promoted terrorism, money laundering or other illicit ends, New York banking officials said.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply. The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Habib has operated in the United States since 1978, and in 2006 was ordered to tighten its oversight of potentially illegal transactions but failed to comply.

The state's Department of Financial Services, which regulates foreign banks, also slapped a $225 million fine on the bank, although that is much smaller than the $629.6 million penalty initially proposed.

Caption

Georgia

Bold

9 Pt.

Leading 11 Pt.

The art of action is in her blood and she wants to prove it right – Photo by Nitin

Quotes

Georgia
Bold Italics
14 Pt.
Leading 16 Pt.

Credit in 6 Pt.
Helvetica.

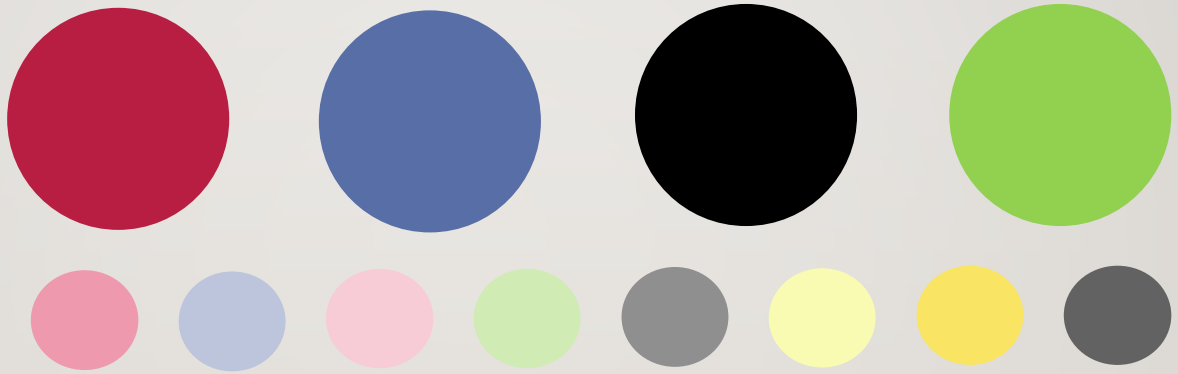
Many parents can't read or write, but they can sit next to a kid and make her study.

TEACHER, GLPS, INDORE

BENNETT UNIVERSITY
A TIMES GROUP INITIATIVE

Colour

PALLETTE



Only four major colours and its shades will be used on all Infographics.

THANK YOU